This Presentation contains or incorporates by reference statements that are not historical in nature and that are intended to be, and are hereby identified as, "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements which are not historical in nature, including the words "anticipate," "estimate," "could," "should," "may," "plan," "seek," "expect," "believe," "intend," "target," "will," "project," "focused," "outlook," "goal," "designed" and variations of these words and negatives thereof and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, including statements regarding, among others, (i) economic conditions, (ii) business and acquisition strategies, (iii) potential acquisitions and/or joint ventures and investments in unconsolidated entities, (iv) financing plans and (v) industry, demographic and other trends affecting our financial condition or results of operations. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations, are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances, certain of which are beyond our control. Actual results could differ materially from these forward-looking statements as a result of several factors, including, but not limited to general economic conditions, both in the U.S. and in the international markets we serve; competitive factors within the HVAC/R industry; effects of supplier concentration; fluctuations in certain commodity costs; consumer spending; consumer debt levels; new housing starts and completions; capital spending in the commercial construction market; access to liquidity needed for operations; seasonal nature of product sales; weather patterns and conditions; insurance coverage risks; federal, state and local regulations impacting our industry and products; prevailing interest rates; foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations; international political risk; cybersecurity risk; and the continued viability of our business strategy.

We believe these forward-looking statements are reasonable; however, you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which are based on current expectations. For additional information regarding important factors that may affect our operations and could cause actual results to vary materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements, please see the discussion included in Item 1A "Risk Factors" of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, as well as the other documents and reports that we file with the SEC. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements were made. We assume no obligation to update forward-looking information or the discussion of such risks and uncertainties to reflect actual results, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting forward-looking information, except as required by applicable law. We qualify any and all of our forward-looking statements by these cautionary factors.

Market Leader in a Fragmented Market

Why scale matters:

- Rich product availability and dense branch network to support customers
- Purchasing power from 1,400+ OEMs and suppliers
- Greater share of wallet from customer spend
- Talent acquisition and retention
- Technology easily scalable across footprint

Significant barriers to entry:

- Technical expertise needed to install and service HVAC units
- Difficult for consumers to “do it yourself”
- OEM approval required to enter distribution
- Loyal customer base

Attractive End-Markets and Products

Benefits of Technology

Traditional

Countless hours wasted on the phone and waiting in line

People and resources spend time away from customers

Inefficiencies eat into business profitability and growth

Digital

Ordering and pickups done in minutes, not hours

Sales becomes more pro-active and consultative vs. being order takers

Resources better deployed to higher margin-generating activities

VS

Technicians complete more jobs in a day

Customers are more efficient and profitable

Customer loyalty increases leading to less attrition over time

Scalable to future acquisitions
